NORTH END OF THE COUNTY NEWS

QUAY.

The mosquitoes have gone.

Truck farmers are getting busy.

E. C. Walker made a business trip to Titusville last week.

Messrs. Paine and Lee, from St. Lucie, were here last week looking after Mr.
Paine's cattle.

W. R. Copeland is off the road for a while and is having quite a lot of improvements made.

A. L. Church has moved over on the east side near the house of refuge to garden this winter.

Mrs. John C. Jones and two children, of Klondyke, went to Titusville last week to visit relatives for some time.

M. S. Jones came in Saturday from a several days' cow hunt. He says there is plenty of water for cattle now.

Mr. Edwards is expected from St.
Augustine soon to make improvements on his place. He will plant a grove half a mile from the depot.

Mrs. M. S. Jones and Miss Virgie Walker were among the number that attended the dance at Vero last Saturday night from this place.

VERO.

lished.

Miss Vida King is spending a few days visiting Mrs. W. B. Davis at Fort Pierce.

S. B. Jones and Joe L. Roberts made a business trip to Fort Pierce on their wheels Tuesday.

We hope the mosquitoes will give us a rest until June, when we will be ready to welcome them home again.

We hear that J. J. Roberts has a very fine crop of egg plant and will be ready to ship in two or three weeks. We wish him much success.

A petition is in circulation here in favor of the county owning the abstract of title books, and we hope all that wish the county well will sign it.

The orange groves here are better this year than ever before. Not having a very heavy crop of fruit the trees were able to put on a good growth.

The dance was well attended here Saturday evening by the young people of this place and some coming from Brantley, Artesia, Quay, Toledo and Narrows.

THE PITT DIAMOND.

Its Varied Career After It Became the Property of France.

The Pitt diamond was first employed, after it became one of the crown jewels of France, in the ornamentation of the crown that was made for the coronation of King Louis XV. in 1722. In 1791 it was entered in an inventory of crown jewels that was compiled by order of the national assembly during the revolution, and it was deposited at the Garde Meuble after the assembly had determined to sell it if a buyer at a suitable price could be found, but no offer was made, and so it happened that in September it was stolen with other jewels by a band of men who broke into the Garde Meuble. It was secreted by the thieves in a hole in the timber work of a garret in a low lodging, and there it remained some time. It was at length discovered by the republican authorities and deposited in the national treasury.

It was not again disturbed until 1804, when it was set in the pommel of the sword which Napoleon wore when he crowned himself emperor at Notre Dame, in Paris. The Empress Marie Louise carried it off with other crown jewels to Blois after the Emperor Napoleon was banished to Elba, but her father, the Emperor Francis of Austria, obtained it from her and sent it to Louis XVIII. That king on Napoleon's return from Elba fled with it to Ghent, but after Waterloo returned with it to Paris. In 1830 the diamond was used by King Charles X at his coronation.

Rockledge, as teacher.

enroute to Joseph Guy's, where he will attend to some special business.

Daniel Boatwright returned from Al-igator Bluff, Friday, bringing a nice load of goods for G. W. Drawdy.

Mrs. W. E. Drawdy and Miss Carrie Matchett, were pleasant visitors at Mr. and Mrs. John F. Parker's Sunday.

R. D. Holmes returned Friday from Fort Pierce where he had been attending the County Commissioners meeting.

Saturday, and his dog came in contact with a large hog and was badly hurt, having three bad wounds.

lin were pleasant guests at Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Knight's Saturday and

Jr., expect to leave in a few days for the St. Johns marsh, where they expect to trap during the coming winter. May good luck go with them.

G. W. Drawdy's young orange grove looks better this fall than it has ever been before. If Jack Freeze stays joined.
